A trumpet call to all FGB men

We are living in exciting times. At the recent National Council Meeting on December 7th, God spoke very clearly to all the National Directors present at the event. We believe He has told us that He is about to move in a new way. In the meanwhile, He is sharpening us like knives or tools for that day.

It seems to the Council therefore that at this strategic time, every member needs to seek the Lord as to whether the Lord is calling him to be a part of this move of God. When God moves, as we believe He will, the Body needs to come together as one, with the wholehearted commitment of every member. We need to be ready and equipped when the Spirit moves.

New phase of FGB ministry

Therefore we are inviting every Chapter President to call the Chapter together to seek the Lord's will for the Chapter. We want to encourage every member to play an active part in this new phase of FGB ministry. In fact, as reported by the Directors, several Chapters have already been led of the Lord to wait on Him seeking His direction before organising any events for 2013.

A more detailed summary of what the Lord revealed to the Council and our interpretation of what we should do as Chapters, follows:

- As Jehoshaphat (2 Chronicles 20, verse 12): 'We do not know what to

'Every member needs to seek the Lord,' writes Peter Spreckley, chairman of the Council (UK and Ireland).

to do, but our eyes are on You (Lord)’.

- The Lord has forgiven us, so we are set free to walk in the Kingdom.
- Wait on the Lord for He is preparing us as a tool (sharpened knives) to be used with great effect as God moves.
- His Glory is given to us (John 17) as His authority and radiance.

His Glory released from us will provide not only a protective covering but light for our path to walk with Jesus (not distracted by the world) but clearly hearing from the Lord.

We are convinced that God is preparing us as a tool in His mighty hand to achieve His purposes in these latter days, with an outpouring of His power and glory.

We believe that God is challenging us to be intimate with the Lord and be led by His Spirit to ‘launch new boats’: new ways of effectively reaching out for the extension of His kingdom. Every member needs to hear from the Lord to confirm his calling from God and to move with the Lord when He directs: being prepared to continue the FGB ministry both in the usual way and in different ways as the Lord directs.

Already, some chapters are preparing to outreach in different ways: praying for businesses and holding different style meetings in different venues. However, we believe every Chapter is unique and God will lead us as individual members and individual Chapters and He will release His power as we release His Glory (which He has already given to us).

‘God is challenging each of us to be intimate with the Lord and be led by His Spirit’

This is the challenge for each of us, we as Directors of the Fellowship can only share what the Lord is saying to us, that we might encourage you all to walk with us in the Holy Spirit’s guidance.

God's word to us

Our hearts were thrilled at the recent UK Convention. Perhaps it is best summed up in the words of Rik Van Neste, the Belgium National Director, who felt that God's prophetic word to us was: "Do not focus on dead dreams — focus on Me alone. Come up higher with Me, abide and continue to dwell with Me. Revival is about the Power of My Presence. I long to see My Bride ready, purified . . . full of persistence, faith, determination and power! You are examples for many, so continue to press in. Fruitfulness comes from intimacy with Me alone!" Hallelujah!

Rik Van Neste,
Belgium Director

Dr Bruce Allen: ‘Jesus Christ is to be our magnificent obsession, nothing else.’

Foundation of true ministry

In his first session, Dr Bruce Allen emphasised the need to understand that the formation of the character of Jesus in us is more important than our seeking the gifts and the anointing, because intimacy leads to the revelation which needs to be birthed in us before it is released through us. Intimacy brings revelation and out of that will come the miracles.

The key is to come to a place of rest where we cease from our own works and striving to make things happen. Rather, we focus on Jesus, and out of that intimacy we grow in our trust in Him and His Word and begin to walk in the Spirit, and are open to hear the voice of God.

So, in our ministry we drop the formulas, and ask God what He is doing in the situation.

Bruce also shared that it is the birth-right of every Christian to see God face-to-face. He reminded us that Jesus only did the things He saw His father doing, (John 5:19).

In our case, being spiritually blind is more incapacitating than being physically blind. Why? Because the realm of the Spirit is the true reality.

God promises: “Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know.” (Jer.33:3).

The purpose of our life is not exclusively to be focused upon the doing but rather on the becoming. To become like Jesus is to be the major pursuit of our life. True worship of God is to be obedient to His Word.

Proverbs 23:26 says, “My son, give me your heart, and let your eyes observe my ways.” First, you’ve got to give Him your heart, then we will observe His ways.

Bruce provoked us to move to a higher level, supporting this teaching with scripture and his own personal testimony.

In his powerful book, “Gazing into Glory,” Dr Bruce Allen explains that the mind is the major battleground when it comes to engaging the enemy. He discusses the importance of a pure heart and a sanctified imagination.

The birthright of every believer

In the second session, Bruce, building on the foundation of rest and intimacy, led us into the realm of seeing Jesus face-to-face, the birthright of every born again Christian.

“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God,” (Matt. 5:8).

Bruce took us on a journey through the true (Hebrew) meaning of discipleship, dealing with the barriers (“the tyranny of the natural realm”), and, above all, the cost (the crucifixion of the flesh) and much more. But it is also all about passion, (“our passion arrests a passionate God”).

Again, scripture supports all Bruce teaches and he has his own exciting stories. Christianity indeed can be fun and an adventure - if we so choose!

Walking in the glory

The richness of Bruce’s teachings at the Convention is evident via the high quality CDs and DVDs now available (see details on Page 9).

In his third session, Bruce moved on from rest, intimacy and seeing Jesus face-to-face into the importance of character – becoming like Jesus. Unless we have the character of Jesus, how can we do the things that Jesus does? (See John 14:12).

Bruce taught how we need to move from “spectacular ministries” to our primary ministry which is towards God Himself. From rest, intimacy and passion comes character. This leads, through a crucified life, into walking as Jesus did, in the glory.

Using familiar passages, that we are seated with Jesus in heavenly places and that He is in us, Bruce showed us how we can activate them to make walking in the glory our experience with dramatic effect on ourselves and others.

It’s later than we think

In his final session, Bruce took us into the prophetic significance of the Third and Seventh days in Scripture, to raise our hope and expectation.

“But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day,” (2 Peter 3:8).

Bruce reminded us that from the time of Jesus until the turn of the century, we have completed 2,000 years — or two days. Historically, we can count backward 4,000 years to Adam. So, from Adam to the turn of the century, we have completed 6,000 years or, according to this scripture, six days. We are now early morning on the seventh day.

Jesus is coming back sooner than many realise. The Son of Man is the Lord of The Seventh Day. We are about to see the release of the Lordship of Jesus Christ in the earth, in our lives, and in our gatherings unlike anything we have ever witnessed or experienced before.

Bruce highlighted the importance of “the seventh day” with some inspired “unpacking” of events recorded in scripture, so provoking those of us with “consistent passion” to move into our destiny – not only having the character of Jesus but also doing what he does. He truly invited us to go to a new level.

The quality of our faith

John Makan (pictured below) also ministered powerfully at the Convention. John was born in Eastern Europe with a Slovak and Slavic heritage, and was delighted to be with us in Nottingham, with his wife, Theresa, who is from the Philippines.

John shared in depth how the issue of faith has been mis-taught. For instance, Jesus never talked about the size of our faith, rather the quality of it. The reference to the mustard seed was never to its size, but its potential (see Matt. 17:20 and Matt. 13:31-32, in the King James translation).

So we should not be asking for more faith, but “how does it work?” Understanding this helps us to enter the rest which Bruce teaches on, and positions us to receive all, including the giftings, that the Lord has for us.

Costly sacrifice

In an encouraging session for the ladies, Jan Bryant (pictured here) recalled the story of the woman with the alabaster jar of very precious ointment, who prophetically anointed Jesus at Bethany, six days before the Passover.

Jan spoke about the sacrificial and often seemingly ‘unnoticed’ service to the Lord which is nevertheless remembered by Him.

Jan went to share from her own experiences and how the Lord will at some time in our lives “break open the jar”, which is symbolic of us, so that the costly fragrance “fills the house.”

Jan also shared about some of her own heavenly experiences.

Pastor Mike Bryant (married to Jan), also brought prophetic insights at the Convention.

Mike, from Folkestone, will be the main speaker at the FGB’s Severnside/

Southwest 22nd Men’s Advance at Brunel Manor, Torquay, on January 25-27. The theme of the weekend is ‘The Glory Realm.’

Powerful testimonies at Russian Convention

The flags (above) indicate some of the countries that have held National Conventions in recent months—pictured, right, are some glimpses of the Convention in St Petersburg, Russia.

FGB-BMF representatives from eight nations outside Russia – (Finland, Germany, India, Latvia Lithuania, Malta, Switzerland and the UK) — were among those attending. Andrey Klementyev, FGBMFI Vice-President, Russia, co-ordinated arrangements for the Convention, supported by Yury Smirov, also an FGBMFI Vice-President, Russia, with Anna Loginenkova (administration) and a local FGB team. Serjei Bauer co-ordinated for BMF Russia. John Walker, FGBMFI President of the European Council, warmly thanked Andrey for all his work in arranging the convention. The European Council meeting was the evening before the convention began.

Lithuanian brothers were among those who led inspired times of praise and worship. The programme included daily prayer sessions, global testimonies, teaching and ministry sessions.

It was a huge blessing to hear how many Russian brothers, who had once lived corrupt and violent lives, had been transformed since they had an encounter with Jesus. Various men reported how God has blessed their enterprises, enabling them to support church and community initiatives.

Russian FGB and BMF men also shared how God had miraculously delivered them from war zone front-line experiences.

John Watt, a BMF UK National Director, shared the God-given Vision as received by Demos. John has a great love for Russia and has made 25 visits to the nation to encourage BMF men there to stay focused on Jesus as our leader and to follow the promptings of the Holy Spirit.

Peter Spreckley, chairman of the FGB National Council in the UK, shared on healing — and the need for us to command each of the ‘mountains in our lives’ to become as nothing, submitting to the will of God. Peter spoke of healings experienced on ministry trips to visits to Africa.

Other speakers included Martin Krugel from the German national board,

and Vidayathil Wilson, BMF National Director, India, who spoke on the importance of integrity and holiness in the lives of every man in FGB and BMF.

Rodney Radcliffe, FGB EC Secretary, referring to the book, The Happiest People on Earth, quoted the passage where it says – “If anyone assumes a function that wasn’t his, he not only did a second rate job, he blocked the flow of power to the person it did belong to.” Rodney testified to remarkable results in London through teamwork, such as booking shortfalls being overcome and all costs being met.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Encouraging times in France

Chris Chamberlain from FGB UK was recently in the resort and spa town of Vichy, in central France, (right) where annual conventions have been held for the past 22 years. Plans are now being made for a European Convention there (May 3-5, 2013).

Chris reports: “Alan Jorel, the French FGB President, told me he is hoping for 1,500 people!”

At the 2012 Vichy convention, Chris was impressed by the testimonies, in particular that of a brother called Emmanuel who had once apparently died after being stung 56 times by hornets on a building site.

Emmanuel, a man of robust faith and now fully recovered, was revived after four hours and claimed to have experienced a foretaste of heaven. Speaking with great passion, Emmanuel said he believed Jesus was coming again soon. “The time when Christians just passively listened to sermons is over,” he declared, “It’s time for us to live the life – to start bearing the fruit of the Holy Spirit!”

A hundred guests prepare to take their seats for the Norwich VIP Christmas Dinner

Many Christmas outreach events

FGB chapters across the UK and Ireland once again organised special outreach events during December. These events ranged from a packed VIP Dinner at the Brook Hotel, Norwich, attended by the Lord Mayor and local community leaders, to the Warrington Dinner with football star Fabrice Muamba (see report on facing page), to comedian Bobby Ball speaking at Letchworth and Stevenage Christmas events.

The Norwich event was presented as a CTI (County Towns Initiative) event organised by FGB to honour the work of many Christian social action groups in the region. The speakers were Gavin Shuker MP, who is on the Opposition frontbench team in Parliament, and George Osborne, the young evangelist from Avanti Ministries. They gave powerful personal testimonies; there was also special music by the gifted singer, Annette Phillips. The guests ranged from council chairmen and civic leaders to professional and business people and representatives from the Prison Service.

Incidentally, December was also a big month for Norwich president Dr Barrie Lawrence, (right) whose evangelistic book, There must be more to life than this, was published by New Wine, with a forward by evangelist Don Double.

Fabrice Muamba: so grateful

Fabrice thanks God for remarkable recovery

Premiership footballer Fabrice Muamba shared his remarkable testimony at an FGB Warrington dinner in December.

Nine months ago he was lying on the White Hart Lane turf after collapsing and suffering a cardiac arrest during an FA Cup tie, with doctors saying he was 'in effect dead' for almost 80 minutes.

The 'miracle recovery' of the popular 24-year-old football star was front page news in many countries.

Dr Andrew Deaner, the cardiologist and Tottenham Hotspur supporter who leapt from his seat in the crowd and rushed on to the pitch to help Fabrice after the Bolton midfielder suffered a cardiac arrest, later described the player's recovery as 'miraculous'.

Born in Zaire (now the Democratic Republic of the Congo), in a Christian family, Muamba moved to England at the age of 11, and despite being unable to speak English, he went on to achieve 10 GCSEs and A-levels in English, French and mathematics. He subsequently played for the England under-21 team and became a professional footballer.

He describes his 'miraculous recovery' from his cardiac arrest as his most amazing experience — with the doctors' help, but even more through the power and the presence of God. Fabrice's recovery was without signs of brain damage, but also with the knowledge of God's presence with him throughout his ordeal: so much so that he immediately started to praise God in tongues (an unknown language) for the first time in his life.

He now lives with a strong calling from God to share the good news of Jesus his Saviour and Lord and the power of the Holy Spirit for all Christians.

In October, Fabrice was married to Shauna Magunda at Peckforton Castle in Cheshire. The pair met while he was playing for Birmingham City and she was studying for a master's degree at Birmingham City University.

Len and Lydia give thanks

Len Brookes, the former FGBMFI Office Co-ordinator in Europe, pictured here with his wife Lydia, is praising God for a remarkable recovery following cancer treatment for his stomach and lungs. Psalm 23 was a huge encouragement to Len while he was in hospital.

CLOSELY KNIT TOGETHER UNDER THE VISION, LOOSELY ASSOCIATED

THE FULL GOSPEL GLOBAL FORUM

Leaders meet again in London for FGB-BMF Global Prayer Summit

As this edition of Vision was going to press, like-minded leaders who share the Full Gospel Vision were once again meeting in London for a Global Leadership Prayer Summit. There was a mighty blessing at the previous 2012 Summit, as leaders from 20 nations met together at the Holiday Inn, close to London Heathrow Airport.

Jimmy Rogers, a delegate from North America, spoke for many when he wrote later that the BMF-FGB Global Prayer Summit “was much greater than I could ever have imagined. After more than 50 years of being involved in FGBMFI and experiencing first-hand most of the challenges that the Fellowship faced, I realised that only God by the power of the Holy Spirit could bring about peace between the vast number of men from various global regions . . .

A new beginning

“I knew that this event was undoubtedly ordained by the Holy Spirit. It was evident that God was giving us a new beginning to get our focus back on fulfilling the vision that He had given us through Demos

Above, the Holiday Inn, Heathrow, venue for the 2013 London Prayer Summit, January 10-12; and right, the report from the 2012 event.

Shakarian in the early 1950s.”

Out of that 2012 London Summit, the Full Gospel Global Forum (FGGF) was established. This is a simple information hub — with a website for networking, mutual support, encouragement and co-operation on common projects both nationally and globally. (Visit www.fg-gf.net ).

FGGF is organised by a small group of like-minded organisations around the world, who were led clearly by the Lord to put this event on, and chose London as a globally central venue. The FGGF is a response to a call for FGB/BMF leaders in nations to further fellowship, network, and move forward together in greater unity and

London Summit

harmony. FGGF does not exercise any spiritual or organisational authority over national ministries.

National organisations that are associated with the FGGF are not linked to any central global oversight. The national ministries join in fellowship with leaders who are furthering the same Vision and Mission for the extension of the kingdom of God, regardless of name or affiliation, while maintaining their respective organisation’s identity and integrity.

Stuart Cripps, who is Secretary of the FGGF, (and also the Executive Officer of FGB UK and Ireland), says that groups within the Global Forum are united in the Holy Spirit and in the Vision — “closely knit together, but loosely associated.”

Blessings in Ireland

The 35th All Ireland Convention at Tralee in County Kerry, was “a wonderful success” with Trevor Bendrien and his music team leading in praise and worship. Guest speakers were Graham Jones, (originally from the UK and now an international speaker) and Carol and Allan O'Soup from Saskatchewan.

Delegates were greatly encouraged - there were also 20 decisions for Christ among the visitors and a similar number were filled with the Holy Spirit. Reflecting on the event, John Gates, FGB national director, said ‘there was a sweet presence of God . . . it was a beautiful convention.’

Director John Gates: so encouraged

All the event’s financial needs were covered, with extra funds received. Meanwhile, in Northern Ireland, Costa Coffee has opened its doors to our newest outreach in Belfast. The coffee shop in the busy Boucher Road area has given FGB members the use of their premises for breakfast meetings between 8am and 10am on a Saturday morning, free of charge. “All we have to do is for each one to buy a breakfast . . . everyone is welcome and first-time visitors get a free breakfast. We plan to meet on the third or fourth Saturday of the month.

“As Boucher Road Costa is surrounded by many businesses, we can invite any local business workers to join us for breakfast before work and hear what God can do for their business and life in general.”

This event is open to all, but please pre-book.

Our theme is:

Pouring out His Glory

Graham Jones was a main speaker at the recent All Ireland FGB Convention. He leads a vibrant church in Southern France in the heart of Muslim, Catholic and non-believing communities and is now launching a church in the US. Graham has a passion for revival to come again just as it was told to him by his grandfather who saw the historic Welsh Revival. Also speaking and singing is John Gaughan, (right), the well-known former Herman's Hermit singer/songwriter, who now has a truly remarkable testimony.

John Gaughan is the main speaker at the Friday evening banquet, February 15th ; the all-day Saturday programme on February 16th starts with a full English breakfast at 8.30am and concludes with a evening at banquet at 6pm. There is plenty of free parking — 50 yards from the traffic lights in Prince Arthur Road, Gillingham.

Encouragement from Belgium

Among the warm expressions of thanks to the organising team for the recent UK Convention in Nottingham, were these words from Rik and Sabine Neste from Belgium: "The event was great, and inspiring to us . . . we are still talking about it. It brought us all to a higher level, closer to Him.

"Never underestimate the great impact that the FGB UK has had on Belgium through the ordinary men who came to us . . . I want to say thanks to you for keeping going for Kingdom purposes, despite opposition. These seeds [you have sown] were designed, birthed, guided and watered by the Holy Spirit."

Rik said he also appreciated the emphasise of the Convention on "the deeper things of God . . . the evidence of the supernatural, the reviving 'weight' of God's Presence, as we come face-to-face with Jesus."

Rik and Sabine added: "We love and appreciate you and the anointing that is on your lives. The greatest Harvest is about to come, due to people like you who have paid the price to keep searching, keep going for Kingdom purposes! Loads of love and greetings!"

See page 3 for Rik's prophetic word for us in the UK and Ireland.

Spreading the Vision . . .

Among the resources available from the FGB National Office is the recently reprinted membership form.

These are ideal for giving to friends of the Fellowship who are not yet members.

The folders feature an encouraging overview of the Fellowship and its aims.

There is also a handy form included for giving to the Fellowship via a Standing Order. Perhaps this New Year is a good time to review and increase our giving? We do our best to keep costs to a minimum, but as you know it costs on average £6 a month per member to maintain our National Office, equal to £72 a year.

God is honoured by our gifts, (Exodus 35:22), and He rewards us for giving to others. For as Jesus said: "If anyone gives you even a cup of water because you belong to the Messiah, I assure you, that person will be rewarded," (Mark 9:41).

And finally . . . a prophetic word as we enter the New Year

It has been My Heart's desire for many generations to raise up a generation that would yearn and long to know Me face to face, to move aside the religious blockade that has been placed between Me and My people.

And this is the generation that I have chosen to know their God face to face. And so I am releasing to this generation and to My people an understanding of My Word by the breath of revelation that I release by My Spirit. And I am releasing My people from chains that are not made by human hands, but that have been made by tradition and that have been made by human reasoning and that have kept you from the Kingdom of God.

For I have chosen you in this generation to walk in the courts of your King, to see that land that is afar off, and to know your God in ways past generations have never imagined. And I am stirring up within you a greater hunger and an understanding of the deep things, the secret things of the Most High. For you are a peculiar generation.

You shall see the fulfilment and the conclusion of the matter. You are a generation that has been chosen by Me to show forth the praises of your God, and you shall do that by coming into the fullness of the stature of the knowledge of God whose you are. And so I am saying to my people, My Heart that has yearned for this moment is now being fulfilled because My desire is fulfilled.

And in the days ahead, I will take you on an adventure in the realm of the Spirit beyond anything you could ask or think — beyond even reason or a comprehension of a carnal nature, but it will resonate within your spirit to such an extent because you are My children made in My image, created for My glory, and you shall know My ways.
